

Teaching deaf children through speaking and listening: a one-day conference examining practical approaches to oral education

Arlington Arts Centre, Mary Hare, Newbury
Saturday 29 June, 9am - 4pm

PROGRAMME

- 9am - 9.50am Registration and Exhibition
Tea and coffee available on arrival
- 9.50am - 10am Welcome from Mary Hare
Robin Askew, Principal of Mary Hare School
- 10am - 10.45am Let's start at the beginning... encouraging learning through speaking and listening
Julie Hughes, The Elizabeth Foundation
- 11am - 11.45am Workshop: Play: Problems, Processes and Pragmatics
AVUK
- Workshop: Assessing Spoken Language in Deaf Learners
Helen Martin, Ewing Foundation
- Workshop: Teaching vocabulary in the classroom
Zoe Power-Silson (English Specialist and Teacher of the Deaf) and Katherine Clements (Highly Specialist Speech Therapist)
- 12pm - 12.45pm The development of a new speech in noise test to stimulate speaker distance and updates from the UK Assistive Listening Technology (ALT) Working Group
Stuart Whyte FBSA, Southampton Auditory Implant Team
- 12.45pm - 1.45pm Lunch and Exhibition
- 2pm - 2.45pm Workshop: New technology in the classroom: the wireless group aid
Lynn Gambles, Mary Hare School
- Workshop: Comparing two SpIN test protocols
Anne Bailey, MSc
- 3pm - 3.45pm The language of thinking - Thinking Matters
Anne-Marie Brooke-Wavell (Humanities and Teacher of the Deaf)
- 3.45pm - 4pm Conclusion

Exhibition will include stands from:

AVUK
Burwood Centre
Ewing Foundation

Mary Hare Primary
Mary Hare Professional Courses
The Elizabeth Foundation

Scan for tickets

